Cyndi Napierkowski started her teaching career in the fall of 1987 as the grades four through twelve Director of Bands and Woodwind Specialist for the Salem Public Schools and was appointed the K-12 Coordinator of Music in 1994. Recently “semi-retired,” she is in her third year as the Band Director for Salem State University and continues to conduct the Salem High School Wind Ensemble, Jazz Band and Tri-M Music Honor Society. Her groups have performed in various venues around the country and Canada including Boston’s Symphony Hall and three performances in Carnegie Hall, earning outstanding and superior ratings at local, state and national festivals and competitions. In April 2024, the Salem High School Jazz Band traveled to New Orleans to perform during the French Quarter Festival. She is the founder and director of the Salem Community Band and Salem Community Jazz Band and a member of the Salem Philharmonic Orchestra. She has received numerous awards throughout her career and has served Music Education in a variety of capacities, both elected and volunteer, for many years. She teaches private woodwind lessons and conducts and/or performs in various ensembles and pit orchestras in the Boston/North Shore area.

WILLIAM (BILL) TIBERIO has been an instrumental music teacher for 41 years, 37 of them at Fairport High School. At Fairport High School he conducts the FHS Concert Band, Sophomore Band, three jazz ensembles, jazz combos, pit orchestra for musicals, and chamber woodwind ensembles. He also teaches woodwind lessons in the district in grades 9 through 12. He holds a position with the Eastman Community Music School, where he teaches in the high school summer jazz program and founded the Eastman ECMS Chamber Wind Ensemble, Jr. High School Jazz Ensemble. He is the founder and director of the ECMS-sponsored Music Educators Wind Ensemble and Jazz Educators Ensemble. He has also been on the summer staff at the Hochstein Music School as a director of a jazz camp and the Tritone Fantasy Jazz Camp, a jazz program for adults.

Bill was appointed in the Fall of 2004 to conduct the University of Rochester Wind Symphony, the Fall of 2008 to direct the UR Jazz Ensemble, and the Fall of 2016 to direct the UR Brass Choir. In 2009, he began teaching one of the Ithaca College Jazz Lab Bands, and is now on the faculty of the jazz department at IC. He's also been the director of the SUNY Geneseo Jazz Band for the last 9 years and is directing the Wind Ensemble there this year as well.

Bill is a frequent guest conductor for honor concert bands and jazz ensembles throughout New York State and has also conducted at SUNY Fredonia and Lawrence University, Wisconsin. In 2018, he guest conducted an all-state festival in South Carolina. He has served as a clinician for the Eastman School of Music JazzFest and is an All-State woodwind adjudicator and band pageant clinician. His Concert Band at FHS has received seven consecutive Gold With Distinction awards. Bill has been a quarter finalist in the Grammy Educator Awards twice and was inducted in the Fairport Schools Educators Wall of Distinction in November, 2021. His band, the Bill Tiberio Band, has released four CDs, which are on all streaming platforms.

Bill was recently named "Best Music Teacher" in the Rochester City Magazine "Best of Rochester" annual awards series and received a Centennial Award from the Eastman School of Music in Meliora Weekend, 2022. Bill was inducted in the Rochester Music Hall of Fame last May as an inaugural recipient of the Ned Corman Music Educator Award.
