

IR/PSC 265: Civil War and the International System

Prof. Bethany Lacina
Tuesdays and Thursdays, 9:40 - 10:55
Bausch and Lomb 269

Civil war is by far the most common form of armed conflict in the contemporary world. The class addresses the questions of when and where civil wars occur and what their effects are domestically and internationally. It focuses on foreign actors' role in civil war, such as financial support to governments or insurgents, armed interventions, and peacekeeping missions.

Course Requirements

1. Students should attend every class. Lecture slides will be available on Blackboard.
2. Reading for the week must be completed by all students before class. All required materials are available through links in this syllabus.
3. Students will take 2 in-class midterms, each worth 30% of the final grade, and a cumulative final worth 40% of the final grade. There are no make-up exams, so please make any travel plans accordingly. Check the registrar's website or office for the most up-to-date information on the schedule for the final exam.
4. The in-class midterms will consist of two essays. The final will require three essays. All of the essays will be randomly chosen from a list of questions distributed in advance of the exam. There will not be a choice of questions.
5. A rubric for evaluation of the exam essays will be distributed with the questions in advance of the exam.
6. If you are entitled to examination accommodations, please coordinate these with the Office of Disability Resources in advance of the examinations (see <http://www.rochester.edu/college/disability/index.html>). Students will not be able to obtain accommodations directly from the professor.
7. The professor will not read over or evaluate answers or partial answers to the exam questions in advance of the test.
8. There will be a chance to earn extra credit during some class sessions. There are no other opportunities for extra credit work.

Regrading

If a student wishes to challenge the grade assigned to all or part of an essay, the following steps must be taken:

1. Students must email the professor a request for a re-grade within 72 hours of the exams being returned to the class.
2. A request for a re-grade must explain which aspect(s) of the grading rubric the student believes should have been assigned a higher score. For each disputed aspect, students must justify why they should be given a higher grade given the standards in the grading rubric and cite specific materials in the readings or lectures if applicable.
3. The professor will re-grade all aspects of the essay. The student's final score on the essay may go up or down or be unchanged.

Academic honesty

Students and faculty at the University must agree to adhere to high standards of academic honesty in all of the work that we do. The College Board on Academic Honesty provides further information on our policies and procedures: www.rochester.edu/college/honesty.

You are welcome to work with other students or to use AI tools when preparing for the exams. There will also be in-class review sessions. You may not bring any notes or other class materials to the exam. Any backpacks, computers, or phones that you bring to the classroom on examination day will need to be left at the front of the room.

Incomplete contracts

In case of an emergency, students may be granted a short incomplete contract to take the final exam at a later date, provided the student has already completed both midterms. No other incomplete contracts will be allowed.
